About Gomolemo

Gomolemo Ratsheko carries the spirit of village culture in his heart. His journey is one of creativity, leadership, and a deep connection to the traditions and values that shape South African identity. From his early education at Sacred Heart College to his current pursuit of a BCom in Fashion at STADIO School of Fashion, Gomolemo's path is a blend of modern ambition and cultural pride.

Education

Gomolemo's educational journey began at Sacred Heart College, followed by formative years at Michaelhouse and St David's Marist Inanda. These institutions laid the foundation for his academic and personal growth, culminating in his current studies in fashion commerce, where he aims to authentically represent South African culture through styling and brand management.

Skills

Gomolemo is a critical thinker and an excellent communicator, fluent in English and basic Setswana. His technical skills include Adobe Premier Pro, Adobe Illustrator, Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, photography, videography, and social media navigation. His fashion sense and menswear styling are complemented by his emotional intelligence and leadership qualities, evident from his role as a Prefect in Matric.

Work Experience

Gomolemo's professional journey is rich with experiences that reflect his creative and cultural ethos. He worked at 1947 On Vilakazi Street, showcasing his interpersonal skills. His internship at Mr. Slimfit and creative direction for PELORATSHEKO™ powered by his studio at the-village highlight his flair for fashion and branding. He has modeled for various projects, designed and sold graphic t-shirts, and contributed to campaigns such as BYD at Kyalami Grand Prix. His work in videography and photography for URBANMOSADI and Adidas Japan Launch in Cape Town. demonstrate his versatility. Gomolemo also served as the main stylist and set designer for a private client's modeling portfolio.
